Vers: Who gives orders to the morning
Tells the sun where to rise
Who speaks life into existence
Tells the dark where to reside
Who chose to love the unloving
Told the crippled to rise up
Chose to die for my redemption
Came to mend the broken heart

Pre-Chorus: There is no one like our God
None like You

Chorus: You're higher, higher
Higher than the heavens
And Your love, Your love deeper than the oceans
And Your word, Your word is true until the end
So I'm holding on to You, the Author of life

Bridge: Jesus it's You, Name above all names
Worthy of all praise, the One that I know
I'll never be able to fathom Your ways
And though I can't see You,
My heart knows You well
